Considered to be the oldest continuously operating Farmers' Market in North America, the Halifax Farmers' Market reflects the advance of the seasons in Nova Scotia. Over 100 vendors offer farm fresh produce, meats, deli, baking, fish and an almost endless variety of special products and crafts from the fields, waters, kitchens and workshops of Nova Scotia. Through it all is a parade of regular and transient musicians. You might hear a traditional folk song, a pop ballad or a classical quartet as you wander through our courtyards of old stone, steel and glass or in one of the many nooks and crannies found in this refurbished 19th century brewery we call home. Open every Saturday year-around from 7:00 am to 1:00 pm at the historic Keith's Brewery Building, 1496 Lower Water Street. Website: www.halifaxfarmersmarket.com

Then, cast off into Halifax Harbour (without ever leaving your seat!), for a mariner's view of Halifax's naval fleet, spectacular harbourfront, and the beautiful skylines of both Halifax and Dartmouth. It's a fully narrated tour, and includes such topics as the Halifax Explosion and the rich history of Halifax's role during war and peace while pointing out the many interesting anecdotes relative to our current fleet of naval vessels. A fun-filled amphibious adventure you'll never forget! Enjoy a 55-minute tour of historic Halifax - by LAND AND by SEA! Phone 902-490-8687 Website: www.harbourhopper.com
